Citation

Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania takes great pleasure in recognizing those institutions which contribute to the benefit of their communities and ultimately to all the citizens of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, The Institute for Behavior Change was honored upon eleven years of excellence in behavioral support services for children during the semi-annual meeting of the Training Institutes, which was held in Nashville, Tennessee, in July 2008; and

Whereas, Founded in 1997 by Steven Kossor, the Institute for Behavior Change has been helping children with diagnosed mental illness by providing in-home and in-classroom psychological evaluation, treatment planning, outcome monitoring and behavior support services. Throughout its laudable history, the institute has made these services available to any child in this Commonwealth who has a diagnosed mental disability, regardless of family income. The commitment and dedication of leaders and staff members have made this possible for eleven years, keeping ever mindful of the noble maxims of the organization.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania salutes the Institute for Behavior Change as it recommit itself to the ideals and standards which have sustained it for eleven years; offers best wishes for continued growth and success in the years to come;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by the Honorable Chris Ross on October 9, 2008, be transmitted to the Institute for Behavior Change, 1850 East Lincoln Highway, Coatesville, Pennsylvania 19320.
