

Senate of Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, PA

Congratulations

In the Senate, January 28, 2009

Whereas, The Senate of Pennsylvania takes great pleasure in recognizing those citizens who, through dedication and excellence, contribute in a meaningful way to the well-being of their communities and ultimately to all the people of this great Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Steven Kossor, founder of the Institute for Behavior Change, is being honored for his dedicated service to assisting children with special needs; and

Whereas, Mr. Kossor, a licensed psychologist and certified school psychologist, founded the institute in 1997. It has provided psychological treatment and behavioral support to more than five hundred children throughout Philadelphia, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery Counties since its inception. Any definition of a full and productive life must include service to others. Through his many initiatives to benefit his community and by personal example, Mr. Kossor has truly become a role model worthy of emulation.

Now therefore, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates Steven Kossor upon his richly deserved recognition; affirmatively states that he is a shining example of community spirit whose many contributions are worthy of deep gratitude and respect;

And directs that a copy of this document, sponsored by Senator John C. Rafferty, Jr., be transmitted to Steven Kossor, 1850 East Lincoln Highway, Coatesville, Pennsylvania.

Senator John C. Rafferty, Jr.

Attest:

Mark R. Corrigan, Secretary
